The address of the evening will be given by I. V. Cobleigh of Burlington and W. B. Howe, publisher of the Burlington Free Press. Accommodations have been provided for a large out-of-town attendance. All the churches in the county have been invited to participate in the event. Many pastors have signified their intention of being present, accompanied by laymen. The men of Burlington are making thorough preparation for a large state convention, March 5 to 7. The national leaders of the movement have promised that the Vermont convention will be given a corps of platform speakers as powerful as has been assembled in any great city of the seventy-six which are being visited by this movement. Each section of the state is taking hold of the matter in a business-like way, meeting by counties to study the ground and in an organized way setting about the securing of substantial delegations for the convention. Any who cannot be on hand for the supper will be in time for the addresses if they arrive at 7:30.

Mutual interest.

A few days after a farmer had sold a pig to a neighbor he chanced to pass the neighbor's place, where he saw their little boy sitting on the edge of the pigpen watching his new occupant.

"How d'ye do, Johnny?" said he.

"How's your pig today?"

"Oh, pretty well, thank you," replied the boy. "How's all your folks?"

—Wasp.

DOES THIS MEAN YOU?

Indigestion, sour stomach, constipation—then headache, backache and a general miserable feeling. Do you know that the pleasant herb tea, "Lane's Family Medicine (Lane's Tea)," moves the bowels each day and will remove all these troubles almost immediately?
